

The New England School of Best Practices program will take place August 24 – 27, 2015 in beautiful Waterville Valley, New Hampshire

Program information is available under the “Best Practices” link at www.neias.org . Coursework has been designed for seasoned clinicians, criminal justice professionals, clinical supervisors, agency administrators, those working with families affected by substance use, and others who encounter addiction in their work. For further information, visit www.neias.org or contact neias@neias.org or 207-621-2549. We encourage you to register today at:

<https://neias.site-ym.com/events/register.aspx?id=637511>

State Partial Scholarship Applications - Most Due July 23 or July 24:

Apply online today for a partial state scholarship: http://www.neias.org/?page=BP_Schol_Information

General program information and lodging information may be found at: https://neias.site-ym.com/?page=BP_Prelim

August 24 - 27, 2015

Waterville Valley, New Hampshire

About the New England Institute of Addiction Studies (NEAIS)

NEAIS is a non-profit partnership with 45 years of experience providing competency development courses to individuals committed to preventing, treating, and supporting recovery from addictive disorders.

Today the New England Institute of Addiction Studies is dedicated to the education and of professionals, volunteers, and the general public concerning alcohol and drug prevention and addiction treatment issues. The Board of the New England Institute is made up of people with substance abuse prevention, treatment, and education expertise from across New England.